

“The Persuasive Church”

Acts 17:16-34

Paul’s response to the idolatry he saw was _____ and a desire to share _____ with people.

The key to Paul being prepared to fulfill God’s calling in Athens was his willingness to have his _____ and _____ changed by the _____ God gave him.

Thus, God turned Paul into a man who sought to _____ _____ to become followers of Jesus.

What can we learn from Paul as we seek to be persuasive ambassadors of the gospel?

1. We need to be willing to allow Jesus to prepare us to be _____ on His behalf.
2. We need to _____ between ourselves and those whom God gives us the opportunity to engage with.
3. We need to _____ people to God as he _____, as he has lovingly revealed himself to all people.

The true God is: _____, _____, _____, _____, and _____.
